Course Description
This course looks at traditional, contemporary and emerging psychotherapeutic approaches with a special focus on skills and techniques. Each approach is examined in terms of (1) its philosophical framework, (2) its intervention strategy, and (3) its view on the role and qualities of the practitioner.

The grading scheme of this course aims to create an opportunity for deeper study, primarily by distributing class work throughout the course, it includes:

- an assignment for every class,
- a journal
- 2 multiple-choice exams, and
- a team assignment, a written report and a presentation of the report.

Program Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate in-depth knowledge in skills and techniques in counselling and psychotherapy.
2. Critically evaluate, synthesize and resolve conflicting results in skills and techniques in counselling and psychotherapy.
3. Articulate trends in skills and techniques in counselling and psychotherapy.
4. Locate research articles and show critical thinking about research findings.
5. Express psychological knowledge in written form in more than 1 sub-discipline.
7. Demonstrate an ability to work with others.

Specific Learning Objectives
Learning will be accomplished through multiple means, including:

- Weekly analytical summaries of each of the approaches covered.
- Class discussions.
- Writing and presenting a report about a randomly allotted psychotherapeutic approach.
- Keeping a self-nurture research journal.
- Working with a team.

Required Text

Description of Assignments

2 exams
- Each one will cover all the topics scheduled since the last exam, unless specified otherwise.
- Multiple-choice format

Bi-weekly Assignments
- All assignments are to be typed and written up in point form, unless specified otherwise.
- All assignments are on the material that is to be covered in class on the date the assignment is due (see schedule).
- The assignments will analyze the reading in terms of:
  - The theoretical perspective
  - The Intervention
  - The Therapist

Self-Nurture Research Journal
The journal is a record of your performance of simple self-nurture acts and an assessment of your own state of mind during that time.
- Self-nurture activities
  - are to be selected every week from a different category from a table provided in the course syllabus.
- Journal sections: There are 4 sections, including weekly entries.
- An assessment of state of mind follows 5 10-point scale questions.
- Journal’s activities are carried out for 5 weeks

Demonstration of scholastic competence
This is measured in 3 ways:
1. Working with a team to develop an activity or game
2. Writing an analytical report on a psychotherapeutic approach
3. Presentation of the report

Class Format and Attendance Policy
Attendance is not required, but... you are responsible for the content covered in class in addition to required readings.

Grading as per Senate Policy
The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 89, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - Grading Scheme for 2020-21
Missed Tests/Midterm Exams/Late Assignment:
For any missed quiz or late assignment, students MUST complete the following online form which will be received and reviewed in the Psychology undergraduate office. At this time, due to COVID-19 an Attending Physician’s Statement (APS) is not required, however, a reason for missing an evaluated component in the course must be provided.

HH PSYC: Missed Tests/Exams Form. Failure to complete the form within 48 hours of the original deadline will result in a grade of zero for the missed quiz or late assignment.

Add/Drop Deadlines

You are strongly advised to pay close attention to the "Last date to enrol without permission of course instructor" deadlines. These deadlines represent the last date students have unrestricted access to the registration and enrolment system.

After that date, you must contact the professor/department offering the course to arrange permission.

You can drop courses using the registration and enrolment system up until the last date to drop a course without receiving a grade (drop deadline).

You may withdraw from a course using the registration and enrolment system after the drop deadline until the last day of class for the term associated with the course. When you withdraw from a course, the course remains on your transcript without a grade and is notated as ‘W’. The withdrawal will not affect your grade point average or count towards the credits required for your degree.
Information on Plagiarism Detection

All written assignments and papers are uniquely tailored to this course.

Electronic Device Policy

This course will be delivered in an online format and therefore electronic devices (e.g., tablets, laptops) are permitted during class time for course-related purposes. It is expected that you would complete tests/exams in a manner that does not require consulting an unauthorised source during an examination unless the tests/exams are open-book.

Academic Integrity for Students

York University takes academic integrity very seriously; please familiarize yourself with Information about the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty.

It is recommended that you review Academic Integrity by completing the Academic Integrity Tutorial and Academic Honesty Quiz

Test Banks

The offering for sale of, buying of, and attempting to sell or buy test banks (banks of test questions and/or answers), or any course specific test questions/answers is not permitted in the Faculty of Health. Any student found to be doing this may be considered to have breached the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty. In particular, buying and attempting to sell banks of test questions and/or answers may be considered as “Cheating in an attempt to gain an improper advantage in an academic evaluation” (article 2.1.1 from the Senate Policy) and/or “encouraging, enabling or causing others” (article 2.1.10 from the Senate Policy) to cheat.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

While all individuals are expected to satisfy the requirements of their program of study and to aspire to do so at a level of excellence, the university recognizes that persons with disabilities may require reasonable accommodation to enable them to do so. The university encourages students with disabilities to register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) to discuss their accommodation needs as early as possible in the term to establish the recommended academic accommodations that will be communicated to Course Directors as necessary. Please let me know as early as possible in the term if you anticipate requiring academic accommodation so that we can discuss how to consider your accommodation needs within the context of this course.

Excerpt from Senate Policy on Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

1. Pursuant to its commitment to sustaining an inclusive, equitable community in which all members are treated with respect and dignity, and consistent with applicable accessibility legislation, York University shall make reasonable and appropriate accommodations in order to promote the ability of students with disabilities to fulfill the academic requirements of their programs. This policy aims to eliminate systemic barriers to participation in academic activities by students with disabilities.

All students are expected to satisfy the essential learning outcomes of courses. Accommodations shall be consistent with, support and preserve the academic integrity of the curriculum and the academic standards of courses and programs.
