Faculty of Health
Department of Psychology
PSYC 4220 6.0 Section C: THEORIES OF HUMAN NATURE
Wednesday/2:30-5:30 p.m./Online via Zoom
Fall-Winter/2020-21

Please note that this is a course that depends on remote teaching and learning. There will be no in-class interactions or activities on campus. It will be delivered through a combination of both synchronous and asynchronous modalities. Lectures are prerecorded. Students need to have completed the relevant lectures and reading materials prior to the corresponding scheduled topic. Students are expected to participate in the seminar through videoconferencing. Activities such as group discussions, labs, tests and quizzes will be delivered via Zoom during class time. Students are expected to attend synchronous activities during the scheduled class meeting time. Students will need a computer with webcam and microphone, and/or a smart device with these features, as well as access to high speed internet and a space that provides privacy. Students will participate via video and audio. Please participate in class from a location that affords privacy for yourself and your fellow students.

Be sure that you have Zoom installed on your computer (or whatever device you will be using) BEFORE the start of classes. See York Zoom page at: https://yorku.zoom.us/

Instructor and T.A. Information
Instructor: Dianne Lawless, Ph.D., C.Psych.
Office Hours: By appointment, virtually. Please put course code in subject line
Email: dlawless@yorku.ca

Course Prerequisite(s): Course prerequisites are strictly enforced

- HH/PSYC 1010 6.00 (Introduction to Psychology), with a minimum grade of C.
- HH/PSYC 2021 3.00 (Statistical Methods I) or HH/PSYC 2020 6.00 (Statistical Methods I and II)
- HH/PSYC 2030 3.00 (Introduction to Research Methods) or substitutes
- Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed at least 84 credits

Course Credit Exclusions
Please refer to York Courses Website for a listing of any course credit exclusions.

Course website: Moodle now called eClass
All course materials will be available on the course e-Class site, unless otherwise indicated by the instructor. The site will be your central access point for course materials [you may add specific types of materials for your course as examples here].
Course Description
A critical examination of theories of human nature with special emphasis on their philosophical foundations and their influence on current psychological theories.

Program Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of theories of human nature.
2. Critically evaluate, synthesize and resolve conflicting results in theories of human nature.
4. Locate research articles on theories of human nature and show critical thinking about research findings.
5. Express knowledge of theories of human nature in written form.
7. Demonstrate an ability to work with others.

Specific Learning Objectives
• develop a conceptual understanding of theories’ assumptions about human nature by using several different frameworks
• consider how varying theories of human nature shape the conceptualization of topics typically addressed in psychology, as well as influence the questions and research methods used to examine them
• reflect on how varying theories of human nature could influence the way we manage our lives and our relationships with others, as well as shape our aspirations we believe are possible and preferable.

Description of Assignments

Weekly Review Questions
There are thirteen sets of weekly questions. Students need to complete a minimum of nine of the thirteen sets of questions. Each set is worth 2 marks for a total of 18. Summaries are graded on a pass/fail basis. These assignments must be submitted through Turnitin by 11:30 p.m. on the due date. No late submissions will be accepted. Respond to the questions in your own words. Do not cut and paste answers. This will result in a failing grade. Responses may be in point form. Maximum length – 450 words.

Weekly Summary | Due Date

Humanist Feminism | Feb. 2, 2021

Film review (4%)
A part of each synchronous zoom class will be devoted to a film review. Students will sign up to be a discussant. Film discussants will need to preview the film. Because viewing time is limited to 10-15 minutes, you will need to select a portion of the film you believe would be most useful for the class to see. After the class views the selected portions, you will give your reactions to the film as a means of stimulating class discussion. N.B.: This is NOT a presentation. Your objective is to help facilitate a class discussion.

Term Tests
Both term tests will take place on-line during scheduled class times. They are not open-book tests. Tests are a combination of multiple choice and written answer questions. Questions must be answered sequentially, meaning you can not return to answer previous questions. Time allowed for MC questions is 1 minute per question. Times for written question will vary based on the weight of each question.

Test #1 (15%) Nov. 11, 2020: Chapters 1-6 inclusive, plus lecture slides.

Test #2 (18%) February 10, 2021 Chapters 7-13 inclusive, historical interlude, plus lecture slides.
Both tests will consist of multiple choice, short answer and essay style questions covering the text and supplemental chapters covered to date. The second test is not cumulative.

Paper #1: CULTURAL METAPHORS (2-3 pages typed, double spaced).
DUE OCT. 21, e-copy to turnitin (through link on eClass)

It is often difficult to convey to others exactly what a specific culture is like. Metaphors can allow us to more easily grasp a new concept by framing it in terms of something familiar. Martin J. Gannon (2002) proposes the use of cultural metaphors as a way to easily express a cultural mindset and compare it to that of other cultures. These metaphors involve identifying an activity or phenomenon that most members of a culture would view as important, and then using it as a metaphor for describing key features of the cultural group. While cultural metaphors are generalizations and will not apply to all members of a group, these metaphors can provide a framework for beginning to understand and compare cultural groups.

Directions: Construct your own cultural metaphor for a culture with which you are familiar. See assignment guidelines on eClass course page for details.

Paper #2: Understanding proverbs from away. 2-3 pages double spaced.
DUE: NOV. 25 e-copy to turnitin (through link on eClass)

With their expressed consent, interview a person from a culture different from your own and ask them to identify a proverb that is common to their culture (e.g., time is money; no man is an island; for every hand there is a glove). Ask them to choose four or five dimensions of their culture to explain its meaning. Be sure to ask for elaboration and clarification to help you grasp its interpretation. Reflect back the meaning as you understand it and ask for feedback. In your paper, present the proverb and identify the culture. Provide a clear and comprehensive written account of its meaning as explained by your informant. Identify three aspects of human nature that are embedded in this metaphor and explain your choices. See assignment guidelines on eClass for details.

Seminar Presentation February 24 to March 31, 2021

Each student is expected to give a presentation to the class in the second term. Your one-hour presentation will be done in groups of three-four. The presentation can include lecture, audiovisual material, class exercises, and guided group discussion. Presentation content will examine two different psychological theories that address the same subject area. A list of suggested topics will be provided. Feel free to discuss additional topics with the course director. Topics and presentation dates will be established early in the first term. You will need to have your proposed topic approved by the course director. You will be expected to discuss the conceptual and research literature in your area of interest and present the material in a clear and organized manner, with a demonstrated grasp of the material that is beyond an introductory level. More specific guidelines regarding the expectations for the presentation will be discussed in class.
Final Paper April 7, 2021

The final term paper may be an elaboration of the same topic as the seminar presentation, or students can choose a different topic (with approval of the Course Director). Details will be announced in class. The paper should be written in accordance with the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. Papers should be approximately 10-12 double spaced pages (2500-3000 words). See eClass for assignment details.

Participation

Class participation will be evaluated based on two components. 9% will be based on active and informed participation and reflection in all class discussions and exercises. Please note, this mark is not based on attendance per se, however, it goes without saying that attendance in necessary in order to participate. It will be helpful to prepare for each meeting by completing the assigned readings prior to each class. 2% will be based on providing a peer review for a minimum of four final group presentations.

Class Format and Attendance Policy

This seminar is presented both synchronously and asynchronously. Lectures on each topic are pre-recorded and available via eClass. Discussions, class activities, film presentations, group presentations and the skills labs will occur during scheduled class times via zoom. STUDENTS ARE EXPECTED TO ATTEND ALL ZOOM CLASS MEETINGS DURING SCHEDULED CLASS TIMES. Students are expected to have listened to the relevant lecture and completed reading material and weekly assignment prior to the zoom meeting during scheduled class times. Attendance is taken during scheduled zoom classes. Students are expected to be available via both video and audio. Students are expected to participate in class from a location that affords privacy for yourself and your fellow students.

A way to determine Internet connection and speed: there are online tests, such as Speedtest, https://www.speedtest.net/ that can be run.
Grading as per Senate Policy

The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 89, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - Grading Scheme for 2020-21.

Missed Tests/Midterm Exams/Late Assignment:

For any missed quiz or late assignment, students MUST complete the following online form which will be received and reviewed in the Psychology undergraduate office. At this time, due to COVID-19 an Attending Physician’s Statement (APS) is not required, however, a reason for missing an evaluated component in the course must be provided. HH PSYC: Missed Tests/Exams Form. Failure to complete the form within 48 hours of the original deadline will result in a grade of zero for the missed quiz or late assignment.

NOTE to instructors: We cannot request APS during the Fall due to COVID-19. We recommend you are explicit about penalties for missing a test/exam/assignment, or any other evaluated course component. If you know when you will provide a make-up test, outline it at this point so it is clear for students. In addition, if you have expectations or examples of what is a legitimate reason for missing a test, please provide examples.

There are deadlines for adding and dropping courses, both academic and financial. Since, for the most part, the dates are different, be sure to read the information carefully so that you understand the differences between the sessional dates below and the Refund Tables.
You are strongly advised to pay close attention to the "Last date to enrol without permission of course instructor" deadlines. These deadlines represent the last date students have unrestricted access to the registration and enrolment system.

After that date, you must contact the professor/department offering the course to arrange permission.

You can drop courses using the registration and enrolment system up until the last date to drop a course without receiving a grade (drop deadline).

You may withdraw from a course using the registration and enrolment system after the drop deadline until the last day of class for the term associated with the course. When you withdraw from a course, the course remains on your transcript without a grade and is notated as 'W'. The withdrawal will not affect your grade point average or count towards the credits required for your degree.

Information on Plagiarism Detection

In this course, we strive to maintain academic integrity to the highest extent possible. Please familiarize yourself with the meaning of academic integrity by completing SPARK’s Academic Integrity module at the beginning of the course. Breaches of academic integrity range from cheating (i.e., the improper crediting of another’s work, the representation of another’s ideas as your own, etc.) to aiding and abetting (helping someone else to cheat). All breaches in this course will be reported to the appropriate university authorities, and can be punishable according to the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty.

To promote academic integrity in this course, students will be normally required to submit their written assignments to Turnitin (via the course eClass) for a review of textual similarity and the detection of possible plagiarism. In so doing, students will allow their material to be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database, where they will be used only for the purpose of detecting plagiarism. The terms that apply to the University’s use of the Turnitin service are described on the Turnitin.com website.

Electronic Device Policy

This course will be delivered in an online format and therefore electronic devices (e.g., tablets, laptops) are permitted during class time for course-related purposes. It is expected that you would complete tests/exams in a manner that does not require consulting an unauthorised source during an examination unless the tests/exams are open-book.

Academic Integrity for Students

York University takes academic integrity very seriously; please familiarize yourself with Information about the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty.

It is recommended that you review Academic Integrity by completing the Academic Integrity Tutorial and Academic Honesty Quiz.
Test Banks

The offering for sale of, buying of, and attempting to sell or buy test banks (banks of test questions and/or answers), or any course specific test questions/answers is not permitted in the Faculty of Health. Any student found to be doing this may be considered to have breached the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty. In particular, buying and attempting to sell banks of test questions and/or answers may be considered as “Cheating in an attempt to gain an improper advantage in an academic evaluation” (article 2.1.1 from the Senate Policy) and/or “encouraging, enabling or causing others” (article 2.1.10 from the Senate Policy) to cheat.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

While all individuals are expected to satisfy the requirements of their program of study and to aspire to do so at a level of excellence, the university recognizes that persons with disabilities may require reasonable accommodation to enable them to do so. The university encourages students with disabilities to register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) to discuss their accommodation needs as early as possible in the term to establish the recommended academic accommodations that will be communicated to Course Directors as necessary. Please let me know as early as possible in the term if you anticipate requiring academic accommodation so that we can discuss how to consider your accommodation needs within the context of this course.

https://accessibility.students.yorku.ca/

Excerpt from Senate Policy on Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

1. Pursuant to its commitment to sustaining an inclusive, equitable community in which all members are treated with respect and dignity, and consistent with applicable accessibility legislation, York University shall make reasonable and appropriate accommodations in order to promote the ability of students with disabilities to fulfill the academic requirements of their programs. This policy aims to eliminate systemic barriers to participation in academic activities by students with disabilities.

All students are expected to satisfy the essential learning outcomes of courses. Accommodations shall be consistent with, support and preserve the academic integrity of the curriculum and the academic standards of courses and programs. For further information please refer to: York University Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities Policy.

Student Well-Being Resources:

BounceBack Ontario offers a free skills-building program in two forms of support: online videos; and telephone coaching sessions with guided workbooks.

A complete list of mental health and wellness resources available at York can be found on the University’s Mental Health and Wellness website, yorku.ca/mentalhealth.
